

FERTILE-BELTRAMI EDUCATION FOUNDATION
Orielle and Eleanor Norland Memorial Scholarship

Guidelines:

The Orielle and Eleanor Norland Memorial Scholarship was established in the fall of 1998 by the Norland family. Eleanor was Robert's mother. She valued education, honesty, kindness, and respect for others. She appreciated those who are motivated to be active participants and take the initiative to make a difference in the lives of others.

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial assistance to students to further their education in any university, college, technical college, or other accredited institution of higher education.

Application Deadline: All application materials must be received in the counselor's office by 4 p.m. on April 1st.

Selection: The Fertile-Beltrami Education Foundation's Board of Directors will serve as the selection committee. Awards will be based on the application information submitted and criteria established by the Norland family.

Criteria: The applicant must:

1. Demonstrate high character, leadership skills, motivation, initiative, and respect for others;
2. Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.50;
3. Plan to attend a technical college, 4-year college or university, or other accredited institution of higher education.

Award: One $1000 award will be presented each spring to a graduating senior. The award will be announced on Awards Day and/or by a letter to the applicant. A check for $1000 will be sent directly to the post-secondary institution following the completion of the first quarter or semester of the student's freshman year.
